The Remnant: A Novel Christy Kenneally

With the fate of the Catholic Church hanging in the balance, a debut thriller of religious ambition gone horribly wrong.

The Pope is dying. A civil war of the cloth erupts as a group of conservative Catholic priests—the Remnant—starts a bloody campaign to ensure they will control the Vatican.

Enter Irish-born Father Michael Flaherty, a former U.S. Marine, alerted by a close friend—a New York City police detective—that the deaths of radical priests in Manhattan have been linked to a man who has fled to Rome, Flaherty goes on the hunt, a task made all the more deadly because both sides wear the same uniform. In the shadow of the Pope's final days, a confrontation looms beneath the Vatican in this richly layered thriller by a new master of the form.
