Io sono del mio amore e il mio amore e mio (Italian Edition) Daniela Pavan Verago

Un romanzo d'amore e di morte. Una storia proibita che non doveva neppure iniziare tra una giovane donna ed un uomo maturo. Un amore dominante, travolgente, morboso, senza scampo che porta un protagonista alla morte violenta e l'altra a una morte che si sconta vivendo. La storia è un lungo flashback, ma è una storia che si chiude con la morte della persona amata, il resto è pura sopravvivenza: tutta la vita della protagonista è infatti un continuo alternarsi tra il tentativo di vivere intensamente e la rassegnazione al vivere passivo. Non pare ci sia scelta possibile in positivo. I tentativi di ricostruire qualcosa, anche se comportano l'emergere di una vocazione artistica, di una affermazione professionale non sono appaganti, perché scontano il fallimento della vita privata, chiusa tra la convivenza con un uomo non amato e il legame difficile con una figlia subita e subdola, accettata solo come surrogato dell'amore perduto, capace di annientare la protagonista, di ucciderla per la seconda volta, ma anche di liberarla dalla propria ossessione.
