It is the summer of 1901 in the rural Minnesota town of Bradford. A terrible accident has just taken place and young Stuart Gray is the first one on the scene. There, with amazingly natural skill, he saves the lives of two people. Afterward, the local doctor challenges him to study medicine, but what of his plans to follow his grandfather into the ministry? One of the people Stuart rescued is Annie Harding, a lovely young lady who is being courted by a rich and debonair banker. But could it be that Annie is looking for a love that money cannot buy?
