When Amy came up to me in that diner I didn't know what to expect. I had lost my job and felt totally helpless. Amy had one wish: she wanted to see the sun set over the ocean. And I wanted to make it happen. I had never thought of the possibility that she could become everything to me. Let alone that she would show me life and the world in a whole new way.

Until the moment Amy told me about her dark secret.

A short story about deep love, perspective, and the things that should matter the most.
