Research Methods for Generalist Social Work (with InfoTrac) Christine R. Marlow

Marlow's accessible research methods text offers students a clear, down-to-earth introduction to the concepts of research methodology. By consistently showing students the links between social work research and generalist social work practice, and by making the methodology easy to grasp, Marlow helps social work students see the relevance of research to social work practitioners. Reflecting CSWE requirements for a global perspective, Marlow's Fourth Edition includes examples drawn from the international social work literature.
