Caesars of the Wilderness: Company of Adventurers, Volume 2 Peter C. Newman

This is the second volume in the history of the Hudson Bay Company, whose empire covered most of modern Canada and the Northwest United States. The proprietors were soldiers of fortune, mainly dispossessed Scots and Englishmen in the service of the Company of Adventurers of England, who became owners of one of history's most valuable and longest enduring land monopolies. "Caesars of the Wilderness" continues the saga historian Peter Newman began in "Company of Adventurers".
