Love is in season in these two novels by beloved author Deb Kastner

THE HEART OF A MAN

For Dustin Fairfax, money has no use unless it's to help others. But according to his late father's will, he can't touch his trust fund unless he gets a "makeover." It's the biggest challenge of personal-image consultant Isobel Buckley's career: turn a flower shop owner into a polished man. But the kind heart beneath Dustin's pinstripes might just convince her that love is always in style.

A WEDDING IN WYOMING

Jenn Washington has spent years avoiding questions about her love life. Now she's found a solution—sending herself flowers from "John" should appease her relatives. Until her pretend boyfriend arrives at the front door in the flesh! Johnny Barnes has his own reasons for playing along with Jenn's ruse, and his growing attraction for her is only one of them. Can these two injured souls make a go at forever love?
