Las historias que nos unen: 21 relatos para la integración de Perú y Chile (Spanish Edition)

Encontrar los episodios positivos en las relaciones peruano-chilenas entre los siglos XIX y XX, y reunir para contarlos a más de una veintena de académicos de ambos países fue la meta que se trazaron los historiadores Daniel Parodi (Perú) y Sergio González (Chile) cuando se conocieron en Santiago en 2011 en un diálogo binacional entre políticos y académicos.

Las historias que nos unen. 21 relatos para la integración entre Perú y Chile reúne algunos artículos escritos por autores peruanos, otros por autores chilenos, y varias por parejas de autores, una de cada país. Todos estos escritos son relatos de hermanamiento entre los dos países a través de historias de amistad que tocan aspectos políticos, sociales y, principalmente, de la vida cotidiana, y por medio de historias vinculadas a Tarapacá y la región de frontera que se extiende hasta Tacna.

Este volumen no intenta obviar los eventos dolorosos de la historia, sobre los que ambas colectividades deberían conversar con madurez y respeto en un futuro cercano. Más bien, la compilación busca ampliar la mirada sobre nuestro pasado común para mostrar que chilenos y peruanos protagonizaron intensos episodios de amistad que ameritan ser recordados, como el aporte del libertador chileno Bernardo O'Higgins a la Independencia del Perú, la admiración al bolerista peruano Lucho Barrios en Chile, la influencia de la culinaria nacional en el país del sur. Estos, entre muchos otros temas, configuran un recorrido por el pasado peruano-chileno que desconocemos, aquel que traza los lazos de unión que deben acercar a las generaciones del futuro.
