The Pursuit of God A.W. Tozer

A. W. Tozer, famed pastor and theologian, was riding a train from Illinois when he began to write and found he could not stop. By the time he pulled into the McAllen, Texas, he was holding the rough draft of a book still recognized for the depth and clear perspective that it wields to address the great uncertainties of Christianity. Rather than attempt to dodge the questions of religion, Tozer embraces the unknown aspects of his faith as inspiration for great thinking and greater spiritual strengthening. "The Pursuit of God" and its eventual prequel, "The Pursuit of Man", are both essential reading for the devotional lover of literature.
