To Live and Fight Another Day: The Story of a Jewish Partisan Boy Bracha Weisbarth

This is the story of the bold and courageous Jewish partisans who fought the Germany Army in World War II.

The narrator of the story is Benny, a 13-year-old Jewish boy who becomes a partisan after his family escapes to the forests of the Ukraine to survive the atrocities of the Nazis.

Despite extreme hardship, Benny is blessed with a wry perspective, which helps him find a bit of humor in each of his dangerous missions. He is uncommonly bright. His quick thinking gets him out of life-threatening situations time after time.

This is the story of the Jewish partisans who fought their enemy and triumphed, to live and fight another day!
