If you are reading this book, in all likelihood, you have lost a pet. I would like to take this opportunity to express my condolences.

I have lost pets myself, and I know that losing an animal you love can be sad and quite gut wrenching. I wish solace for you and comfort.

This book contains five stories that will give you ideas about how some of my clients have created a one-of-a-kind, wearable works of art with me to deal with their own grieving processes and to honor the lives that they shared with their pets.

Honoring and remembering is a very important part of grieving and healing. Remembering helps us stay human, and remembering helps us stay connected.

I sincerely hope that reading this book and sharing in some of my clients' stories helps ease your pain knowing that there may be a way to honor your pet while speeding the healing process.
