¿Qué hay en el castillo? (What's in the Castle? Spanish Edition) Editors of Silver Dolphin en Espanol Kids love to tinker, and this board book in the form of a castle is an enticing way to satisfy that impulse while also teaching children reading and rhyming, and something about the fabled edifice. The castle actually contains six small board books that are accessible by crossing an alligator-infested moat -- in reality, by simply opening the front to reveal the colorful drawbridge and moat. Sitting in niches inside are the small, easily removed books with titles like Dragons, Animals of the Castle, and The King and His Court. Each book uses rhymes to teach about the castle and to introduce new words. Colorful artwork and the carrying-case design make this a delightful item for inquisitive kids.
