'He sighed as he smelt the faint aroma of her, memorising her just as she was-dead, mutilated, undignified. He would remember her in the worst way possible, so he could learn to hate her-it was quicker than to grieve for lost love.'

The Colour Red. What does it mean to you? There are too many meanings behind one colour; but its part of our daily lives.

1970's America; its history dedicated to wars, protests, sex, drugs and rock `n' roll.

For every person his or her story has been untold.

Those who didn't play a part in history will soon make the headlines of the papers.

Would you die for someone that destroyed themselves?

A story dedicated of the true meaning of the colour red, dive into a tale of deceit within the lives of policemen, runaways, psychologists and prostitutes.
