The Ancient Hebrew scriptures are many thousands of years old. However, these influential texts still have the potential to influence our daily lives profoundly as well as to shape world events. At About the Time of the End is a new book that seeks to examine biblical narratives pertaining to Ancient Hebraic roots while juxtaposing them with scientific findings in the areas of archeology and evolutionary genetics. Author Anaviel Ben Eleazer originally composed the chapters that comprise the book as a series of individual essays. In compiling them into a book, it is his hope that the reader will be presented with an alternate view of biblical history and a new understanding of Ancient Hebraic scripture. The book is written from the informed perspective of someone who has lived in a Hebrew community in Israel for nearly four decades. At About the Time of the End presents nuanced views on a variety of biblical subjects and employs a new perception and understanding that's based on a deep appreciation of the Hebrew language and the Ancient Hebrew lexicon in particular. Anaviel Ben Eleazer was born in Atlanta, GA and raised in Detroit, MI. However, since 1974 he has lived in Israel, where he raised his family in the Negev town of Arad. While also running his own entertainment-booking agency, he has authored numerous articles and other short pieces over the years. At About the Time of the End is his first published work.
