Layla had been unlucky in love... to the point that she had essentially thrown in the towel. Her first serious beau had been a lying cheater, and when she thought she had finally met the man of her dreams after that heartache, he had died shortly before they were to be married. It was too much pain for very little return, she had told herself. In the aftermath of those relationships, she had thrown herself into her work and all but given up on any type of social life. Sex was but a distant memory. Then Shawn Malcum entered her life. The visceral reaction he stirred in her the very second that she looked at him was something she could not understand, but nor could she ignore it. Ignoring the part of her that wanted to be cautious and proper, she takes a chance at one night on the wild side. One night to try the things she had only heard about. But, reckless abandon could cost her much more than her spotless reputation. Advisory: This material is intended for mature adult audiences only. Graphic Sexual Content.
